Getting to Know You.....

More Back Stories from NNT members

My first quilt teaching was from Sara Conrad, and over the years I found out my Grandmothers were quilters (Granny Smith and Great Grandma Laisure, both mother and daughter) and made several wonderful quilts. Grandmother's Flower Garden was one and I have that one.

My father helped set up quilt frames for the gathering in her home. My father knew many quilt patterns because of helping-learning a lot at the gatherings.

My Grandma Kimmell also used to quilt, I helped her finish several before she passed on.

Deb Drake

My great-great grandmother designed and made quilts. She won a prize in the Indianapolis Star/News Quilt Contest in 1933. It was an inspiration. But it wasn't until I came to Sparta UCC in Kimmel as pastor and I met Millie Worker (now Banks) as my parishioner. We talked and she encouraged me to try. Just before I retired I came to Noble Nimble Thimbles. I have learned massive amounts from each and every one of you.
