October Program

Kasie Milk with help from her mom, Kim Marti, will be our speaker next month. Her quilting back story will be presented in the October newsletter.

SHORTCUT

For a shorter walk to the meeting room, enter the kitchen door from the Sheridan St parking lot..

FALL FUN SATURDAY, NOV 6, AVILLA LIBRARY

Marlene Sowatzke will be showing her variety of scrap quilt patterns. Pam will give us a supply list when we get closer to the date. See the photos posted on our facebook page.

Mask Wearing at Meetings

Due to the increased positivity rates for the Delta variant of Covid-19, we encourage you to wear masks indoors. This may help everyone feel more comfortable. It is your decision.

Hint from Marilyn Foster:

Always thread a needle from the end that comes off the spool and knot the end you cut from the spool. Thread is spun in one direction; if you pull through fabric against the way it was spun, the thread shreds and twists.

SHOW AND TELL

We will have a short business meeting and show and tell inside after the garage sale. We will continue having people come up front by groups to show their quilts and projects.

2022 Eye Candy Quilt & Textile Challenge

The purpose of this challenge is for you to have fun and be creative! Thanks to 29 people who drew a bag last month! More are available this month.

You may sign up for a numbered bag containing wrapped or boxed candy. You must use all the colors of the candy inside. You may also use any color found on the package plus any color of background fabric.

Only one entry per bag. Additional bags can be purchased for $1 each. If you sign up and don't display your challenge item, you will pay $1. All money will go to a designated charity.

Projects due March 22, 2022. The box, bag, or wrapper must be displayed with your entry.

Categories:

1. Bed and throw quilts-any size
2. Table toppers, runners & placemats
3. Non-wearable accessories (bags, purses)
4. Garments/wearables
5. Wall Hangings
6. Home Decor
